Bible to do:

1. Complete diary entry on bottom of page 62
2. Read John 14
3. Turn out all the lights in the room. Even though your lighting system has all it needs to function and do its job, it doesn't work by itself. The power is there, but we need to flip the switch in order to access it. (Turn the lights back on) In the same way, we have all the power we need in our lives through the Holy Spirit, but do we consistently plug it in and turn it on? The Spirit's power in our lives won't manifest itself of its own accord. It needs to be activated. Jesus, at the end of the Lord's Supper, told the disciples he wouldn't leave them "in the dark." He would provide them with the power source they needed to continue his work after he was gone.
4. Read "A Closer Look" on next slide

Bible...A Closer Look

This passage constitutes Jesus' final farewell to the 11; Judas was already gone. This is one of the most tender moments in the Gospels, as Jesus helps the disciples turn their gaze ahead. Jesus knew that the end of his ministry on Earth had come, and he was ready for the suffering that implied. Instead of referring to his death as being "crucified," he understood its purpose and called it "glorified."

The disciples remained perplexed that Jesus was leaving them. Jesus' heart must have ached for the disciples more than it did at the thought of his own impending suffering. He promised not to leave them as orphans. As Jesus was about to leave the upper room, he promised to send the Holy Spirit in his place to train, comfort, and lead his children on the homeward way.
